

Working Paper Guidelines

The Working Papers focus on all areas of data protection and privacy research and can contain empirical research on privacy issues and analytical work on privacy governance and regulation in the EU; global flows of data; reconciling law enforcement and privacy interests; privacy challenges posed by new technologies; comparative research on privacy in different regions; jurisprudential issues of privacy protection; and many others.

Available at www.brusselsprivacyhub.org/publications.html.

Editorial Board: Paul De Hert, Christopher Kuner and Serge Gutwirth

Submissions: info@brusselprivacyhub.org

Layout

- Title
- Author name(s)
 - Author affiliations in first footnote citation
- Abstract (100-150 words)
- Key words
- Paper
 - Aside from the usual introduction, body and conclusion, can include table of contents, summary, recommendations and/or bibliography at author's discretion

Length

15 - 20 pages, single spaced

Formatting

Garamond font, size 12

Referencing

Use a standard form depending on which field the paper is written (e.g. use OSCOLA referencing for legal papers)

Keep consistent