“

The enriching academic year I spent attending the LLM in International and European Law programme in Brussels really surpassed my expectations, revealing itself as of unparalleled quality and interest. After my legal studies in Rome, this Master has given a completely different, multifaceted and tailored dimension to my career perspectives in European and International affairs. It constitutes a strong and valuable basis for my professional future. Thanks to this LLM I look forward to the next challenges with absolute confidence!

- Eleonora Camela, LLM alumna (2019)

What does it cost?

For updated tuition fees and study costs please check our website.

The programme offers a limited number of scholarships that take the form of a partial tuition fee waiver.

Who can apply?

To qualify for admission you need to have:

- a law degree (J.D., LL.M. or equivalent) that entitles you to practise law in your country of origin
- excellent academic results and references
- proven proficiency in English

Students are selected on the basis of their academic qualifications as well as work and other related experience.

About our school

The Brussels School of Governance is an alliance between the Institute for European Studies (VUB) and Vesalius College. This LL.M. in International and European Law is a programme of which the degree will be awarded by the Vrije Universiteit Brussel.

What can you study?

After a solid set of 8 core courses (30 credits) on EU institutional law and judicial protection, EU external relations law, EU economic law, public international and comparative law, human rights and competition law, students can choose to focus on one of 3 specialisation options (12 credits). You close off the programme with a Master's thesis (18 credits).

PUBLIC LAW OPTION

Case Study on Public International/EU law
EU Environmental Law in an International Context
International and European Criminal Law

BUSINESS LAW OPTION

Case Study on European Competition Law
European and International Private Law
International and European Taxation

DATA LAW OPTION

International and European Data Protection Law
Data Policies in the European Union
Case Study on Global Privacy and Data Protection

SPECIAL COURSE: MOOT COURT

The Moot Court will enable students to further deepen their skills in pertinent areas of law and supplement their theoretical knowledge with the practical aspects of international law, human rights law, and EU procedural law.

“ an ideal setting for constant, intensive interactions across multiple cultural boundaries'...this programme can be considered as a 'best practice' in international perspective'...a PILC degree always 'opens the first door'...graduates are well positioned to enter international law firms and organisations
